HR Solutions Using Encounter Collaborative

Recruit and Retain Top Talent

Use Encounter's products and services to broaden your recruiting efforts, and at a fraction of the cost of traditional recruiting efforts. Make online presentations to prospective employees, conduct group and team interviews and allow candidates to present themselves to your organization – online and without the high cost of travel and recruitment fees.

Maximize Your Human Capital

With impromptu and recurring online meetings, you'll promote knowledge sharing between your company's distributed workforce. HR directors across the globe can facilitate collaborative planning sessions with managers, supervisors and legal teams – and meet state regulatory requirements.

Promote HR Self-Service

Encounter's media-rich tools allow Human Resources departments to create a virtual communications center for all employees to access, at any time. Record and archive your company's policies, procedures and benefit plans for playback at your employees discretion. Encounter's attendance tracking tools will help facilitate your company's compliance reporting.

Increase Communication at Less Cost

New employee orientation sessions can now be conducted virtually, saving your company both time and money. Dispersed workforces will benefit from hearing the same information about your company, and with interactive meeting features like Q&A, polling, sharing and audience feedback, you'll have the ability to gauge employee understanding – in real time.

Meet Regulatory Compliance Requirements

Human Resources regulatory compliance is a constant and ever changing process, and HR professionals are tasked with quickly – and cost-effectively – communicating new state and federal mandates to a large, disperse audience. With Encounter's conferencing solutions, HR teams can meet compliance requirements, in both a timely manner and at a fraction of the cost of traditional communication methods.
